8. ON THE LINE OF MEETINGS AND DECISION-MAKING BY THE COMMITTEE

8.1. The Committee meetings are convened as necessary, but at least once a quarter. The list of issues to be considered is determined in accordance with the Work Plan for the year approved by the Committee at the beginning of the year. If necessary, the Committee shall hold extraordinary meetings. Meetings may be closed (with the participation of the Committee members only) or open (with the participation of other invited persons).

8.2. The Committee meetings are convened by the Committee Chairman on their own initiative, at the Board member’s request, by the Board’s decision, by the Bank’s Management Board decision, or on the initiative of the Internal Audit Department Director.

8.3. The Board Members who are not Committee members, the Chairman of the Bank’s Management Board, members of the Bank’s Management Board, including the Deputy Chairman of the Management Board for Risk Management (CRO), the Internal Audit Department Director, the Chief Compliance Officer (CCO), and other Bank employees may be invited to open Committee meetings. If necessary, experts and consultants with the necessary professional knowledge may be involved in the Committee’s work.

8.4. Any member of the Board, the Chairman of the Bank Management Board, a member of the Bank’s Management Board, including the Deputy Chairman of the Management Board for Risk Management (CRO), the Internal Audit Department Director, the Chief Compliance Officer (CCO), as well as experts and consultants involved in the work may apply to the Committee Chairman with a proposal to consider any issue within the Committee’s competence. Such an issue may be considered either at the next scheduled meeting of the Committee, or, if the issue is of particular importance and its consideration is not delayed, at an extraordinary Committee meeting.

8.5 The agenda of the Committee meeting shall be determined by the Committee Chairman. In this case, any Committee member has the right to initiate the inclusion in the agenda of an additional issue related to the Committee’s functions. By mutual agreement of the Committee members, the agenda may be amended and supplemented. If necessary, the Committee may refuse to discuss the issues determined by the agenda of the current meeting, in favour of other issues of the highest priority, as decided by the majority of the Committee members.

8.6 If there is a personal interest of the Committee member in considering an item on the Committee agenda, this information should be disclosed at the Committee meeting.

8.7 Notification of the Committee members and invited persons about the Committee meeting, as well as sending the necessary materials to the Committee members shall be carried out by the Committee Chairman (or the Committee Secretary) no later than 3 (three) working days before the date of the meeting in the manner agreed by the Committee members.

8.8. The Committee meeting is competent (there is a quorum), provided that two-thirds of the Committee members participate in it.

	5.1. Corporate Governance	Version 3.0.
	Regulation on the Collegial Body – Audit Committee of the Supervisory Board of JSC “FUIB”

8.9 The Committee meetings may be held by direct presence of the Committee members in a certain place, or remotely, by telephone and/or videoconference (interactive audiovisual communication), conference call (simultaneous conversation of the Committee members in the telephone meeting mode), or by special electronic means, which is equivalent to personal presence. The Committee’s decision may be made by absentee voting (polling in writing or using other technical means of communication).

8.10. The Committee meeting is chaired by the Chairman. During the meeting, the opinions of the Committee members and persons invited to the Committee meetings on the agenda items are heard.

8.11. All Committee’s decisions shall be taken by a majority of votes of the members who participated in the Committee meeting. When making decisions, each Committee member has one vote.

The Committee Chairman (the Committee member temporarily acting as the Committee Chairman) has the right to cast a casting vote for an equal distribution of the Committee members’ votes when the Committee is making a decision.

8.12. The Committee Chairman has the right to temporarily delegate their powers to another Committee member, if it is not possible to attend the meeting, about which the Committee Chairman informs other Committee members. The Committee member to whom the powers of the Committee Chairman are delegated has one vote when the Committee is making decisions.

8.13. The Committee, within the framework of the issues referred to it for study and preparation for adoption by the Board of the relevant decision, makes a decision by drawing up a draft Board decision and includes it in the minutes of the Committee meeting.

8.14 The Committee’s decisions in the form of a draft Board decision shall be sent by email to the Board Secretary (Corporate Secretary of the Bank) for inclusion in the agenda of the regular (extraordinary) meeting of the Bank Board.

8.15. The Board may make a reasoned decision to reject the Board’s draft decision proposed by the Committee. As a result of the rejection, the issue shall be sent for reconsideration by the Committee.

8.16. The Committee’s decisions shall be recorded in the minutes drawn up by the Committee Secretary. The meeting minutes shall be preliminarily agreed with all Committee members present at the meeting. The minutes shall be signed by the Chairman at the Committee meeting and the Committee Secretary.

The Committee meeting minutes should contain:

- 1) date, venue, start and end time of the meeting;
- 2) form of the meeting (open/closed; regular/extraordinary);
- 3) method of holding the meeting;
- 4) a list of Committee members who participated in the meeting, as well as a list of other persons invited to the Committee meeting;
- 5) information on the quorum;

	5.1. Corporate Governance	Version 3.0.
	Regulation on the Collegial Body – Audit Committee of the Supervisory Board of JSC “FUIB”

- 6) agenda;
- 7) the speaker and the content of the report for discussing the issue;
- 8) expressed opinions of the Committee members on the issue under discussion;
- 9) a separate opinion of the Committee member, which differs from the opinions of the majority (if any);
- 10) the results of roll-call voting, decisions on the issues discussed with the proposed draft Board decision.

8.17. The Committee minutes and materials on the Committee’s work shall be kept by the Committee Secretary, who shall provide access to the Committee minutes, as well as materials considered at the Committee meetings, to all Committee and Bank Board members.

Such documentation shall be used by the Board to assess the effectiveness of the Committee’s work.

9. THE PROCEDURE FOR REPORTING BY THE COMMITTEE

9.1. The Committee shall regularly, at each Board meeting, report on the issues considered by it, and also at least once every six months (at the Board meetings, at which the results of the Board’s activities for the first half of the year and for the reporting year are considered) shall submit to the Board a report on the results of its activities (the indicative form of which is given in Annex 1).

9.2. The information specified in the report on the Committee’s activities should contain information on the Committee staff, the number of the Committee meetings and its main activities, an assessment of the independence of audit entities that provide mandatory audit services. Such information shall be published on the external Bank website within three working days after its approval by the Bank Board.

9.3. On behalf of the Board, other information may be disclosed in the report.

9.4. The Committee Chairman shall organise the preparation of information on the results of the Committee’s work for inclusion in the Board report and the Bank annual report.

10. DOCUMENT REVIEW PROCEDURE

10.1. This Regulation shall be updated at least once a year. Responsible for updating is the Committee Chairman.

10.2. The Board reviews this Regulation at least once a year and, if necessary, amends the Regulation, ensures its introduction and approval.

10.3. This Regulation shall enter into force upon its approval by the Bank Board.

Amendments and supplements to this Regulation shall be approved by the Bank Board and shall be formalised by a new version of the Regulation.

Adoption of the new version of the Regulation automatically leads to the termination of the previous document.
